Overview

This course is an introduction to some of the significant legal and ethical challenges facing the management of global businesses. It is designed to raise difficult ethical, governance, and legal challenges and dilemmas, and to provide plausible frameworks for dealing with those conflicts. The course is also designed to reveal common patterns of management success and failure. Class sessions will consist of collaborative discussions about questions of law and ethics in the context of complex business decisions.

The class is divided into four subject matter sections: Business Ethics, Corporate Criminal Law, Global Compliance, and Ethics, Accountability, and Technology.

Class Materials

All assigned reading materials will be presented/distributed in class or posted on CANVAS.

Grading

1. Class participation (20% of final grade)
2. Final exam (80% of final grade). A take-home essay final exam will require the analysis of a series of case studies, making use of the assigned materials and class discussions. The exam will be open-book and open-notes. Your exam should be submitted on CANVAS at or before the announced deadline.
